

KNOW YOUR TRADITIONS

Whether you're a true fan, a Mountaineer parent or a new student bored at home (aren't we all!), this crossword is a good reminder of some of WVU's most well-known icons and traditions.

Across

- 2 / In 1973, the WVU Marching Band adopted this song for its football halftime shows.
- 5 / On any given day, thousands of students and fans find creative ways to mix and match our official colors.
- 6 / An iconic building on our Morgantown campus with a clock tower that may or may not be haunted by a ghost cow.
- 7 / This Mountaineer won the first gold medal of the 2016 Olympics.
- 10 / Where thousands of fans gather to cheer on our Big 12 Football team.
- 14 / Our official logo and the shape of some pretty tasty cookies.
- 16 / A legendary comedian, actor, WVU alum and Morgantown native.
- 17 / The name of the WVU Marching Band AND that feeling you get when you hear them play.
- 18 / A 100-year-old academic building, home to the Department of Forensic and Investigative Science.

Down

- 1 / Our buckskin-clad mascot doesn't do the job alone. This furry companion with a heart of gold is named ...
- 3 / It's not quite Hogwarts, but it's close. This gothic structure once housed the library.
- 4 / If you haven't sung this John Denver song at a big game, you haven't had the full Mountaineer experience.
- 7 / At this home game, you'll be out of place if you don't don a gold shirt.
- 8 / WVU Football Coach Neal Brown expects his players to live this mantra daily.
- 9 / The official name of our men's and women's soccer stadium.
- 10 / We conquer mountains, but that's not why they call us ...
- 11 / When the WVU Marching Band plays this song, Mountaineers of all ages join in.
- 12 / This WVU alum and former Lakers legend is also the silhouette on the NBA logo.
- 13 / A 14,000-seat multi-purpose arena where you can cheer on the Mountaineer Basketball teams or watch a legendary show.
- 15 / It's a way of life. Our rallying cry. Because when others go back, Mountaineers ...