

ALL AROUND THE WILD AND WONDERFUL

How well do you know the Mountain State? Print this crossword, read each clue and spell your way to a West Virginia destination worth the wait. When you're done, let us know which of these you've seen in person and which you plan to visit!

Across

- 2 / This West Virginia amusement park offers 26 acres of fun outside Huntington. (2 words)
- 4 / A family-friendly café, live music venue and hostel in the artsy town of Thomas. (2 words)
- 7 / This majestic 62-foot cascade in the Allegheny Mountains has an unusual amount of dark tannins in the water, giving the water an almost black appearance. (2 words)
- 8 / Name of the world's largest fully steerable telescope and an observatory that WVU researchers use to make amazing discoveries.
- 10 / The historic home of West Virginia 4-H camping and the first statewide 4-H camp in the nation — run by WVU Extension. (2 words)
- 11 / A cultural center in Beckley where you'll find everything from pottery to wood carving, all by West Virginia artists and artisans.

Down

- 1 / This historic town in the Eastern Panhandle is where abolitionist John Brown staged a raid on the Federal Army in 1859. WVU helped rebuild here after a major fire. (2 words)
- 2 / Arguably the most selfie'd site in the state, this overlook offers sweeping views of the Cheat River Canyon, and it's the perfect spot for a picnic. (2 words)
- 3 / This has been America's resort since 1778, offering golf, gambling, great food and luxurious surroundings in White Sulphur Springs.
- 5 / Our State Capitol, with its iconic gold dome, is located in this fun, modern city.
- 6 / If you're into whitewater or rock climbing, this National River should be your next destination, with over 70,000 acres to explore. (2 words)
- 9 / Home to West Virginia's epic State Fair experience held in August. Come for the great food and fun activities. Don't forget to stop by the WVU building.